

Deco-TEC Conduct Guidelines

Put Christ First!

All guidelines apply to both teens and adults.

Language- No idle gossip or slander. No foul language.

Consequences- One chance to speak to a spiritual director; after that you may be asked to leave.

Smoking- No person under the age of 18 years old, parents will be called. No leaving the weekend. Must follow state laws and church restrictions. Zero tolerance.

Alcohol/Drugs- Zero tolerance. Amnesty if contraband is turned in on Friday night, no consequences. May turn in anonymously.

Consequences- Police will be called, parents called if applicable.

Male/Female Interaction- Appropriate Christian hugs, 3 seconds, allow room for an inflated balloon between the two hugging. A "couple" on a weekend should not show enough affection to be known as being together by people on the weekend, no groping, kissing, or hanging on each other.

Consequences- Talked to once. Occurs again they will be removed.

Electronics- Only spiritual directors and the head wheat team leader will have cell phones. Any other electronic devices will be asked to not be brought on the weekend or will be taken away if seen on the weekend. This applies to all TEC activities.

Including but not limited to: ipads, ipods, mp3 players, mp4 players, cd players, computers, nooks, kindles, etc. If you bring music for your talk, give to the head wheat team leader so that it is available for your talk.

Consequences- First offence: Electronic device is confiscated until end of weekend and locked in a secure location. Second offence: You will be asked to leave the weekend.

Dress Code- No less than three fingers across the shoulder for strap. Hand at the collar bone, shirt cannot be lower than the bottom of the hand. No sagging pants.

Consequences- You will be asked to change, if you lack the extra clothing, clothing will be found for you.

Energy Drinks- Zero tolerance.

Consequences- Removal of the drink.

Sleep- Go to bed when asked the first time. Tired or not you must do your job that you are on the weekend for.

Consequences- You will be asked to leave the weekend if you cannot do your job.

Outside team- Outside team is limited to the prayer chapel or the sanctuary depending on which area is not being used. Kitchen help is only allowed in the kitchen and dining areas to serve and not interact with the weekend.

Consequences- if the confidentiality of the weekend is broken you will be asked to leave.

Additional consequences may include ineligibility to work a weekend for the period of one year.
